

Parent Workshop: Building the Habits of Lifelong Readers

"Every time I attend a parent workshop I learn something new. It's a great environment to ask questions and enjoy yourself with other parents!"
~Halecrest Parent
Habril Gamboa

"Definitely worth my time! These workshops are eye opening and beneficial. I highly recommend attending!"
~Halecrest Parent
Amber Roehm

When: Tuesday, November 27, 2018 from 6:00-7:30 pm
Where: Halecrest Elementary Room 605

- If you attend you will automatically be entered in a raffle to win one of a number of different prizes. Your child will also receive a homework pass for one night of no homework!
- The connection between lifelong success and reading is undeniable! The more a child reads, the more successful they are in school and in life. Join us to learn how to support your children in building the habits of lifelong readers. Leave with ideas on how to support your child's reading growth at school and learn how to encourage your child to become a lifelong reader!
- The Chula Vista Library will also be here to present the many amazing resources it offers families. Don't miss this excellent opportunity to connect with your local library!
- Childcare and light snacks will be provided.

"Halecrest Educators are asking parents to partner with us to help our children to succeed in school and in life. Please commit to attending one of our parent workshops."
~Erin Pickett (Resource Teacher) & Amber MacDonald (Principal)

Workshop Presenters:

Araceli Ceven (3rd Grade Teacher & Parent)
Erin Pickett (K-6 Resource Teacher & Parent)
Myriam Loya (4th/5th Grade Teacher & Parent)
Christina Duenas (2nd Grade Teacher & Parent)